Tōia mai ngā tāonga a ngā mātua tīpuna. Tuia i runga, tuia i raro, tuia i roto, tuia i waho, tuia te here tāngata. Ka rongo te pō, ka rongo te ao. Tuia ngā rangatahi puta noa i te motu kia pupū ake te mana Māori. Ko te kotahitanga te waka e kawe nei te oranga mō ngā whānau, mō ngā hapū, mō ngā iwi. Poipoia te rangatahi, ka puta, ka ora.

The name 'Tuia' is derived from a tauparapara (Māori proverbial saying) that is hundreds of years old. This saying recognises and explains the potential that lies within meaningful connections to: the past, present and future; to self; and to people, place and environment.

The word 'Tuia' means to weave and when people are woven together well, their collective contribution has a greater positive impact on community. We as a rangatahi (youth) leadership programme look to embody this by connecting young Māori from across Aotearoa/New Zealand - connecting passions, aspirations and dreams of rangatahi to serve our communities well.

TUIA OVERVIEW

Tuia is an intentional, long-term, intergenerational approach to develop and enhance the way in which rangatahi Māori contribute to communities throughout New Zealand. We look to build a network for rangatahi to help support them in their contribution to their communities. This is done through developing relationships between a diverse range of rangatahi throughout the country that recognises, accepts and celebrates diversity.

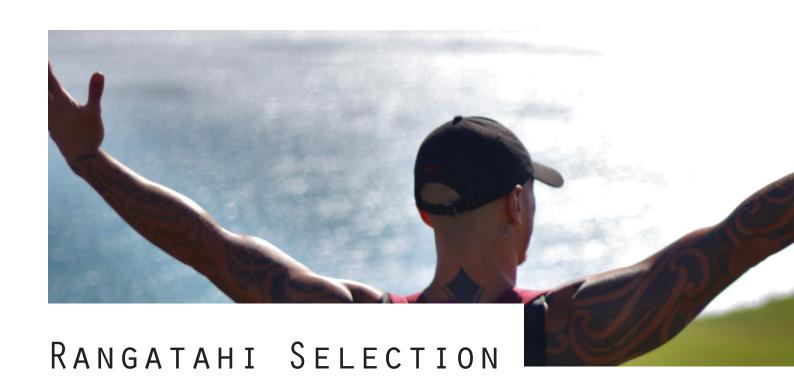

Three pou make up the Tuia rangatahi experience:

- 1. Mentoring
- 2. Community contribution
- 3. Wānanga

At a local level, a mayor will select a rangatahi Māori from their district who they will develop a mutually beneficial mentoring relationship with, in order to enhance their ability to contribute well to community. This will happen on a monthly basis, involving both informal meetings and participation at formal occasions. The relationship will also provide both parties with the opportunity to gain a deeper insight into inter-generational issues, cultural values and experiences.

Selected rangatahi will be expected to undertake a 100 hour community contribution project in their respective communities.

Rangatahi will also attend five wānanga in different parts of the country over the year to build networks, obtain support and have exposure to a diverse range of people from across the country.

Who is eligible for the programme and how will they be selected?

The Mayor will select a young Māori using the following criteria.

The rangatahi selected must:

- be aged between 18-25 years old;
- be actively involved in contributing to the wellbeing of their community at some level;
- be able to commit to being involved in this part-time programme of three three-day and two four-day wananga (leadership forums) over a period of 12 months;
- have support from others to participate in the programme (whānau/hapū/pakeke/ employers/community etc.);
- be open minded and willing to contribute to discussions and workshops; and
- be well organised and have the ability to manage their time and commitments effectively.

SELECTION PROCESS

Each participating Mayor in partnership with their community and past rangatahi participant (where applicable) will select the candidate against the criteria outlined on the previous page. Each Mayor will determine what process they deem to be the most effective in order to identify their candidate.

Selection process examples are:

- Personal application (e.g. essay / presentation)
- A nomination and selection process
- A personal choice
- In consultation with community groups
- On the advice of iwi and hapū groupings
- On the advice of the council's community development advisors

Mayors should consider the following:

- Compatibility (shared interests)
- Gender (may be relevant)
- Connection to the community

NB: A Tuia Mentoring Mayoral Toolkit is available and will be distributed to those participating Mayors. This will include a range of strategies and experiences Mayors can use to support the development of their rangatahi.

MAYORAL/MENTOR EXPECTATIONS

Mayors/mentors who agree to become a mentor recognise the potential this approach has to effect long-term positive change in the life of the rangatahi they are mentoring and through them, many communities around the country.

Mayors/mentors will be required to:

- meet with the young person at least once a month;
- involve the young person in community activities that will assist their development as a leader;
- financially support the young person to attend five wānanga (leadership forums) per year.
 (Domestic transport costs only: approx. $800 $3000 per year variance in cost is largely relative to geographical considerations earlier bookings beneficial);
- attend a one day mentoring training opportunity (optional).

"The TUIA programme has not only grown leaders amongst the Rangatahi of Ōtorohanga but across all of Aotearoa. As Ōtorohanga's Mayor, my experience mentoring my Rangatahi has left me with much pride and aroha for the achievements and the positive future of young maori across our country."

Max Baxter Ōtorohanga District Mayor

RANGATAHI EXPECTATIONS

Young people who agree to take part in the programme will make the most of this unique opportunity by participating in all of the planned activities and meetings.

The young people will commit to:

- Meet with their Mayor at least once a month;
- Be involved in additional community events at the invitation of the Mayor (where practical);
- Attend three three-day and two four-day wānanga (leadership forums) per year;
- Community contribution project(s) over a 12 month period (approx 100hrs).

COMMUNITY CONTRIBUTION

General Guidelines

Hours

- The expected commitment for this is approximately 100 hours for the year, which equates to approx. two hours per week.
- There is no need to record hours of community contribution the focus is on giving to the community rather than fulfilling a requirement.
- The hours can be made up of many small projects, one large project or a combination.

NB: Many rangatahi are already contributing to their communities - if this is the case for your rangatahi, then those contributions would count towards those 100 hours.

Projects aim/nature

- There are no strict requirements for the aim or nature of the contribution activity. See next page for examples of past community contribution projects.
- The benefits of this is for rangatahi to be able to share their experience, practice new strategies, obtain peer support and demonstrate leadership skills.

Reporting

• While not a formal requirement, some form of reflection about service activities is recommended.

Emma Taiaroa has a passion for the taiao and decided to volunteer her time to two planting projects in the Canterbury area. One being Te Ara Kākāriki and the other as part of Te Kōhaka o Tūhaitara where she got to work with others to plant native trees with the goal of improving the ecological integrity of those areas.

RANGATAHI STORIES

BRONSON'S STORY

The journey that I have been on this year with Tuia has been the most rewarding experience I have had, but also at the same time, the most nerve-wracking and anxiety building thing I've done. With that being said, I would 100% recommend for rangatahi to get involved with Tuia as you will NEVER regret it!

The journey for me began with a patchy phone call with my Mayor, where I blindly said yes without fully understanding what I was signing up for and has led through to some of the best memories of my life to date. With the impact of COVID-19, each wānanga has been unique & amp; and special, and has offered some of the most rewarding opportunities to pause, reflect, and grow myself, who I am, and also those around us and what impacts everyone else.

Having not grown up with the opportunity of being immersed in my culture like others, I felt a stranger to my heritage and fraudulent for identifying as Māori because I hardly knew anything about my whakapapa. The moment I stepped onto the marae in Otorohanga (being the first time since aged six), I immediately felt welcomed and accepted which led to the several month long journey I have been on to identify who I am and where I fit in my own world. I've connected with my whakapapa in ways that I never thought would have been possible and met so many other like minded rangatahi Māori who want to (and already are) make change in every aspect of the world that they live and operate in.

I am not the first nor the last of this Kaupapa, but I'm excited to be able to welcome you on this journey, joining the hundreds who have walked this path before you – making your own mark for those that will follow you. This Kaupapa is not about one person or one thing, but about us all and us coming together to pause, reflect, and grow.

MAUI'S STORY

'Scared but excited'

Over the whole year, this journey has been one of my scariest and most exciting adventures. I remember at the first wananga, I was completely shocked. Coming from a completely different environment the year before at high school, I was completely out of my comfort zone. I remember at Tahaaroa seeing a packed room full of different people of different ages from different backgrounds. A person like me, who likes his space, who can be a bit nerdy, and at times can be a bit awkward, I thought I was completely out of place. But I was so wrong. The amount of things I have found in common - the passion for community, for Te Ao Māori, and the same obstacles faced has made me feel closer to the Tuia whānau. I honestly feel like I have another whānau in Tuia. The emotionally filled stories shared at Te Araroa, or the feeling of unity and teamwork when we did the community projects in Wellington. I am just amazed at the sheer amount of talent and drive in the rangatahi of this kaupapa. I've met talented writers, musicians, artists, performers, academics, leaders, dancers, entrepreneurs and that's just probably the tip of the iceberg. I'm so glad I didn't pass up this opportunity to participate this year, or else I honestly don't think I would end up being the person I am today. I always loved this whakatauki and I think it describes perfectly all of your pursuits and dreams that we rangatahi want to achieve, "Whaia te iti kahurangi, ki te tuohu koe me he maunga teitei." Ngā mihi, sei gente molto motivata e incredibile.

PUAWAI'S STORY

'Tuia has shaped me'

Trying to describe what Tuia is will never be an easy thing. Perhaps not describing it, describes it quite well. Tuia is an indescribable experience, journey, and vision. It feels like the first breath you take after surfacing from the water. The freedom, the enhancement of mauri, an intake of life and energy. It's the opportunity to meet a generation who is willing to help carry the load. Tuia allowed me space to breathe. I was no longer alone in my pursuit to help my people. There is a generation rising who are no longer willing to compromise on who we are as indigenous people of Aotearoa There are rangatahi all over this nation that have and continue to find the courage to stand in the mana of their tupuna for what is right. If you look broadly, this is an elegant moment of resilience and strength we are witnessing. Change is setting on our horizons as a country and Tuia is conscious of that. Through the weaving together of extraordinary people, deeply meaningful places, moments in time, purpose and vision – Tuia for many, changes not just lives, but the course of generations to come. As the days go on, our voices get louder, clearer, distinct and unwavering. We do not stand as individuals, we stand as 10,000 voices. Ancestors, brothers, sisters, children, the future. Tuia is a vision. It is the hands that are weaving together the harakeke of disconnected generations to their tūpuna. Hands that stretch wide and far until their knuckles go white trying to catch anyone who needs support. Hands that heal. You will never see Tuia wearing a cape, but they will always be there to give you seeds. We are 10,000 growing together. Ko Taranaki e tū tonu nei.
